With human capital considered the key resource in the 21st century economy, the questions facing employers is how to protect this resource and ensure that their company stays ahead of the competition – especially when key employees leave.

This webinar will provide an overview of the most important laws and regulations in selected countries in Europe for protecting a business' know-how, trade secrets, and confidential information by using restricted covenants. In addition, our experienced panel – from Belgium, Czech Republic, Denmark, England, France, Greece, and Italy – will address the following key issues for their jurisdiction:

- How best to enforce non-compete agreements (contractual or post-contractual)
- The pros and cons of using a restrictive covenants template from abroad to protect a company's trade secrets
- The costs to a company for litigating a restrictive covenant
- Preventive measures and key take-aways
